What Happens to the Benefits You Have Today?

Before you retire, you'll want to take note of what happens to the benefits you have today. Some of these benefits will end on your last day worked at Rockwell Automation. Others will end on the last day of the month in which you retire (which could be your last day worked if you retire at the end of a month). With many of your benefits, you have the option to continue coverage after you retire.

Key Term
Last Day Worked; Your last day worked is considered your retirement date for benefit purposes.

Benefits Ending on Last Day of Work

Benefit	What You Can Do

Retirement Savings Plan (401k)	Contributions to your account generally stop with your last paycheck. See page 25 for more information about what you can do with your vested account balance after you retire.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU START THE RETIREMENT PROCESS

How to Choose a Retirement Date

Your last day worked can be any date you choose—toward the beginning, middle or end of the month. As you decide what date is best for your situation, you'll want to think about what happens to the benefits you have today once you retire and how prepared you are for a gap in cash flow.

Why You Might Want to Choose a Date That's Toward the End of a Month	Why You Might Want to Choose a Date That's Toward the Beginning of a Month
If you elect to receive your pension benefit in the form of a monthly payment, there's less time between when you receive your last paycheck and when your first pension payment will arrive. That's because pension payments are made on the first of the month. For example, if you retire on March 29, you could receive your first payment on April 1 if you return all your paperwork on time.[1]	You gain an additional 1/12th of your annual vacation allowance that is then paid to you after you retire. Many of your current benefits (such as medical and dental coverage) continue through the end of your retirement month. This gives you additional time to analyze your health care coverage needs during retirement and explore your options. NOTE: If you choose a retirement date toward the beginning of a month, you'll need to prepare for a slightly longer cash flow gap. For example, if you choose to retire on March 2, you will need to have enough savings on hand to cover one month of living expenses because your first pension check, if you elect a monthly payment, would not arrive until April 1.[1]

[1] It takes 90 – 120 days following retirement to process a lump sum payment from the pension plan.

What Happens to your Cash Incentive

WHAT HAPPENS TO YOUR CASH INCENTIVE (BONUS)

Annual Employee Incentive Plan or Incentive Compensation Plan

If you participate in the Annual Employee Incentive Plan (AEIP) or the Incentive Compensation Plan (ICP) and work through December 31 or the last business day of the year (you complete the first three months of the Plan's fiscal year, which starts on October 1) and there is an earned payout, you will be eligible for a portion of your bonus after you retire. For both the AEIP and ICP, retirement means that on your last day worked, you are at least age 55 with 10 years of service or at least age 65 with five years of service.

The award will be prorated based on current policy located on the AEIP app of EPOCH. Your annual bonus will be paid to you in December following your retirement.

Here are some examples:

- If you retire November 1, you remain eligible for the fiscal year bonus for the year prior to your retirement date. You will not receive any portion of your bonus for the fiscal year of your retirement date.
- If you retire December 31, you would be eligible to receive 3/12 of the fiscal-year bonus for the fiscal year of your retirement date, if applicable per policy.
- If you retire February 28, you would be eligible to receive 5/12 of the fiscal-year bonus for the fiscal year of your retirement date, if applicable per policy.
- If you retire February 5, you would be eligible to receive 4/12 of the fiscal-year bonus for the fiscal year of your retirement date (February is excluded in the proration as you did not work on or past the 15th day of the month), if applicable per policy.

Sales Incentive Plans

Earned incentives (including accelerators/discounts) will be paid out as scheduled and may be received via payroll in the months following your retirement date.

Note: If your home address changes after your last day of work, please make sure to contact the HRSC to update your home address to ensure you receive your tax forms at 844.404.7247, Monday - Friday, 9am- 4pm CT.

How to Apply for your Pension Plan Benefit

If you were hired, or were a part of an acquisition after July 1, 2010, or if you already received your pension benefit as an in-service distribution, this next section may not apply to you.

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR PENSION PLAN BENEFIT

If you were hired, or were a part of an acquisition after July 1, 2010, or if you already received your pension benefit as an in-service distribution, this section may not apply to you. To determine if you have a Pension Plan benefit, call the RASC and talk with a Retirement Specialist. Rockwell Automation pays the full cost of your Pension Plan benefit.

The amount of your benefit is calculated using a formula that takes into account the following:

- Your age when you commence your benefit (and your spouse's age, if married)
- Your years of service with Rockwell Automation (called your credited service)
- Your salary history over the last 10 years while working at Rockwell Automation

Before you retire, you need to be aware of three things as they relate to your pension benefit:

- When you can retire and receive a benefit
- What your payment options are
- Once your first pension payment or lump sum payment is issued, you will not be able to make different choices for your pension benefit payment option.

Plan Ahead

At least a year before making an election for your Pension Plan benefit, you should carefully consider your benefit start date, early reduction factors that may apply and your payment option, as these may affect the options available to you and the amount you receive. Reviewing the Summary Plan Description (SPD), modeling different retirement dates using the online tools and talking with an RASC Retirement Specialist or other trusted advisors can help you understand these factors and reduction applicable on particular dates.

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR PENSION PLAN BENEFIT

When You Can Receive Your Pension Benefit The pension plan's normal retirement age is 65. You may retire before or after age 65. If you retire from Rockwell Automation on or after age 65, your pension payments must start right away. If you retire from Rockwell Automation before age 65, you may choose when you want to start your pension benefit—either right after you retire or at a later date (but no later than age 65).

Your Age When Your Employment with Rockwell Ends

Before Age 65: Prior to Early Retirement Date

You may start your pension benefit right after you terminate employment, but it will be reduced. It is reduced because of the longer period it is expected to be paid.

Your benefit will be reduced for each full month prior to age 65 based on the interest rates and mortality tables in effect when you commence your benefit.

You can wait until age 65 to start your benefit, which allows you to avoid a reduced benefit due to early payment.

Before Age 65: On/After Early Retirement Date

You may start your pension benefit right after you terminate employment, but it will be reduced. It is reduced because of the longer period it is expected to be paid.

Your benefit will be reduced for each full month prior to age 65, by 1/15th (6.67%) for each year between ages 60 and 65; and 1/30th (3.33%) for each year prior to age 60.

You can wait until age 65 to start your benefit, which allows you to avoid a reduced benefit due to early payment..

At Age 65: Normal Retirement

Under IRS rules, you must start your benefit right after you terminate employment with Rockwell. Your benefit will not be reduced as your payments will not begin prior to your normal retirement age.

After Age 65: Late Retirement

Under IRS rules, if you continue to work beyond age 65, you must start your benefit right after you terminate employment with Rockwell. Your benefit will not be reduced as your payments will not begin prior to your normal retirement age.

NOTE: You continue to earn a pension benefit for as long as you work at Rockwell Automation. In other words, the time you work beyond age 65 will be factored into your benefit calculation.

Key Terms

Early Retirement Date/The earlier of:

- The date you reach age 55 or older with at least 10 years of credited service; or
- The date you attain 75 or more age/service points, as long as you have at least 10 years of credited service

Credited Service - Basically, this is all the years you've worked at Rockwell Automation.
Age and Service Points - One "point" is given for each year of your age and each year you've worked at Rockwell Automation.
You receive 1/12th of a point for each full month of your age and each month in which you work at least one day at Rockwell.

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR PENSION PLAN BENEFIT

Choosing a Payment Option

Before you begin receiving payments, you decide how you want your pension benefit to be paid to you—either as a recurring monthly payment or a single lump sum payment. The value of the benefit is equal under all the payment options. However, the actual amounts will differ based on the number of payments that are guaranteed, such as a monthly benefit only to you or monthly benefits to you and another person.

Lump Sum Option

Available to everyone[1]

Duration of Benefit	Why Choose It
• You receive a single payment of your entire benefit. No other benefits are payable under the Plan. • The single payment is equal to the present value of your monthly payments (which is determined by the interest rates and mortality table in effect for the calendar year in which you start your pension). You can defer paying taxes by directly rolling it over to an IRA, Rockwell 401(k) Plan, other eligible employer's retirement plan, or by rolling it over within 60 days of when you receive it. NOTE: If you don't directly roll over your payment, the IRS requires that 20% be withheld and you may also have to pay additional taxes at tax filing time. If you are under 59 ½, early withdrawal taxes may apply. Your payment is also subject to state and local income taxes where applicable. Some states, such as Ohio, require state tax withholding, and you may be required to pay additional taxes at tax filing time.	• You feel comfortable investing the lump sum value of your pension benefit so that you can provide yourself with a steady stream of lifetime income after you retire. • You do not want to receive monthly benefit payments for life. • You may have the opportunity to pass any remaining amount of your lump sum to your heirs upon your death.

[1] If you're married when payments begin, you may be required to submit spousal consent to choose this option.

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR PENSION PLAN BENEFIT

Monthly Annuity Options

You Only

Single Life Annuity
Available to everyone[1]

- Duration: A monthly benefit is paid to you for your lifetime.
- Why Choose It? You want to receive the highest monthly benefit possible for your lifetime. There's no need to provide benefits to anyone else after you die.

[1]If you're married when payments begin, you may be required to submit spousal consent to choose this option.

You + Another Person

10-Year Certain and Life Annuity
Available to anyone[1] whose last day worked is on or after his/her early retirement date (see page 16).

- Duration: A reduced monthly benefit paid to you for your lifetime with payments guaranteed for 10 years. If you die before receiving payments for 10 full years, your named beneficiary will receive the remaining months. Payments to your beneficiary stop after the 10-year guaranteed period has ended.
- Why Choose It? You want to receive a monthly benefit for your lifetime. You want to provide a beneficiary with a limited number of payments if you were to die within 10 years of your payments start.

[1]If you're married when payments begin, you may be required to submit spousal consent to choose this option.

NOTE: This is the "normal" or default form of payment if you are single if you don't choose a different payment option.

Joint and Survivor Annuity
Available if you are married

NOTE: The 50% J&S Annuity is the "normal" or default form of payment if you are married if you don't choose a different payment option (with your spouse's consent)

- Duration: A reduced monthly benefit paid to you for your lifetime. If you die before your spouse, he/she will receive a monthly benefit for the rest of his/her life. If your spouse dies before you, no benefits are paid after you die. Once your payments start, you cannot change your option—even if your spouse dies before you or you get divorced. The monthly benefit amount is based on yours and your spouse's age when your benefit payment starts, and you choose the amount your spouse is to receive after you die, such as 50% or 75% of your monthly benefit.
- Why Choose It? You are married at the time you commence your benefit. You want to provide ongoing monthly benefits to your spouse for his/her lifetime. Your spouse will not consent to a different form of payment.

- Pension Elections Authorization Form that you need to complete and return to verify your choices.
- How to Finalize your decision: Finalize your pension choices with the RASC after you have reviewed your Pension Election Confirmation Statement and Pension Election Authorization Form for accuracy.
- When to Do It: On or before the 10th of your retirement month—the deadline. For example, if your last day worked is April 30, you would need to take this step by April 10, at the latest. If your last day worked is May 3, you would need to do it by May 10 to receive your first monthly check on June 1.
- How to Do It: Sign the Pension Election Authorization Form and return it to the RASC by document upload, fax, or mail, along with any other required information. Contact information will be on the first page of your Pension Election Authorization Form.

When to Expect your payment - Your benefit will be paid to you based on the elections you made. If you elected to start your benefit right away and the RASC receives all required information by the 10th of your retirement month, here's the earliest you will receive it:

- If you elect the Single Life Annuity, 10-Year Certain and Life Annuity, or Joint and Survivor Annuity: First of the month after you retire.
- If you elect the Lump Sum Payment: About 90 – 120 days after your last day worked.

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR PENSION PLAN BENEFIT

After you Retire. Important items to know about your pension benefit option and payment date.

Can you change your pension option?	Once your first pension payment or lump sum payment is issued, you will not be able to make different choices for your payment option. However, you can make changes at any time before then. To do that, you would need to restart the entire process.
True-Up Process	About 60 days after your retirement date, the RASC will recalculate your pension benefit using your actual final pay information. The benefit recalculation is part of the "true-up" process.
Does this change timing and amount of your payment?	If you elect one of the Annuity options: Your monthly payment could go up or down after the "true-up" is completed. In most cases, the change in benefit amount is not significant. If you elect the Lump Sum Payment: Your payment will not be made until after the "true-up" is completed. It takes about 30 – 60 days to finalize your lump sum payment after the "true-up" process is complete. That means you would receive your payment 90 – 120 days after your retirement date (60 days for the "true-up" process, plus 30 – 60 days to finalize the payment).
Can you still retire if you return your forms after the 10th of the month?	You can still retire on the date you choose even if you return your Pension Election Authorization Form to the RASC after the 10th of your retirement month. However, your pension payment will be delayed by one month. Here's an example: If you retire on April 30 but you do not return your signed Pension Election Authorization Form to the RASC until after April 10, here's the earliest you will receive your benefit if you choose to start it right away: If you elect one of the Annuity options: June 1. You would receive two payments for that month, a retroactive payment for May plus the regular payment for June.

Something to Keep in Mind if You're Eligible for Pre-Medicare Retiree Medical Coverage

No matter which pension payment option you choose, you'll also need to keep the RASC informed of any changes in your personal situation that could affect your retiree medical coverage (such as your address or if a covered dependent is no longer eligible for coverage).

Retirement Savings Plan 401(K)

YOUR RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN (401(K) PLAN)

Contributions to your Retirement Savings Plan (the 401(k) Plan) account generally stop with your last paycheck. After you retire, you can leave the money in your account as long as your vested balance is at least $1,000.

Before you receive money from your Retirement Savings Plan account, it is a good idea to seek the help of a trusted financial advisor for distribution advice, including how to receive any portion of your account that is invested in the Rockwell Automation Stock Fund. You may also want to review the differences among pre-tax, Roth and after-tax balances in your account. Choose What to Do with Your Savings Account After You Retire

Leave your money in the Rockwell Automation Retirement Savings Plan

What happens: Your account balance will stay in your account where you can continue to defer taxes on this money and control your investments by using the investment choices available under the Plan.

NOTE: This is the Plan default if you don't make a choice when you retire, and your account balance is more than $1,000.

Things to Consider: You can leave all your money in the Plan. Taxes will apply when your taxable account balance is eventually paid to you.

NOTE: IRS rules require that you begin to take money out of the Plan when you reach a certain age (RMD age). The only exception to this is if you continue to work. See the table below to determine when you must begin taking distributions:

Birth Year:	RMD Age:
Before 7/1/1949	70 1/2
7/1/1949 - 1950	72
1951 - 1959	73
1960 or later	75

Take a lump sum cash distribution

What happens: The full value of your vested account balance will be paid to you in a single cash payment, less the automatic tax withholding on the taxable portion of your payment, as required by law.

NOTE: If your account balance is $1,000 or less, it will automatically be paid to you in a single lump sum cash payment after you retire, unless you elect to transfer it as a direct rollover into an IRA or a new employer's plan that accepts rollovers.

You receive a single payment of your entire vested account balance no further benefits are payable from the Plan. You can defer taxes on your lump sum payment by rolling it over to an IRA or other eligible employer's retirement plan within 60 days of when you receive it.
If a portion of your account is invested in the Rockwell Automation Stock Fund, you'll need to decide how you want it paid out—either as cash or as stock. You may want to review net unrealized appreciation tax strategies with your trusted financial advisor.

NOTE: If you take a cash distribution, the IRS requires that 20% be withheld. You may have to pay additional income taxes at tax filing time. If you are younger than 59½, early withdrawal taxes may apply. Your payment is also subject to state and local income taxes where applicable.

YOUR RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN (401(K) PLAN)

Choose What to Do with Your Account

Your Choices	What Happens	Things to consider
Request installment payments	What happens: Your account balance will be paid to you in installments, with taxes withheld on the taxable portion of your payment as required by law. You choose the payment time period and frequency. If you die before receiving all payments, the remaining balance will be paid to your beneficiary in a single lump sum payment.	Contact Fidelity at 1.877.ROK.401K (1.877.765.4015) to learn more about your options. The IRS requires that 20% is withheld for federal income taxes on any taxable portion of your payment. You may have to pay additional taxes at tax filing time if the 20% is not enough, in addition to any applicable state or local taxes.
Request a partial withdrawal	What happens: You may elect to receive a portion of your account balance paid to you in a cash payment, less tax withholding as required by law. You may also elect a partial rollover. The remainder of your balance stays in your account tax-deferred, and you continue to control your investment choices.
Request a direct rollover	What happens: Your vested account balance will be paid to an IRA (individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity) or a new employer's retirement plan that accepts rollovers on your behalf.	With a direct rollover, you can continue to defer taxes on your account balance. Taxes will apply when this money is eventually paid to you. If a portion of your account is invested in the Rockwell Automation Stock Fund, you'll need to decide if you want it paid out as cash or as stock. You may want to review net unrealized appreciation tax strategies with your trusted financial advisor.

YOUR PRE-65 RETIREE MEDICAL COVERAGE

Enrolling in Pre-Medicare Retiree Medical

If you are enrolled in Active Medical, Dental and Vision, your benefits will be extended till the end of the month of your retirement date. You will be able to enroll in your pre-65 retiree medical plan the first of the month after your retirement date. You may enroll in COBRA coverage to continue your Dental and Vision if you were enrolled in Active dental and vision.

Prior to your Retirement Date

- Initiate your intent to retire by calling the Rockwell Alight Service Center (RASC) to speak to a retirement specialist at 877.OUR.RASC (877.687.7272).
- You can initiate your retirement event at least 90 days prior to your retirement date.
- You will receive a personalized Retiree Enrollment 'Worksheet.' This worksheet is to allow you to view your Pre-65 Retiree Medical options, it is not to make your elections.

Note: Be sure to inform your manager. Your manager will work with the Rockwell HR Service Center (HRSC) to ensure your retirement date is entered into Workday and sent to the RASC to make it official. This will not stop you from starting the retirement event, but if your date is not in Workday, you will not be able to enroll in retiree benefits when it's time to enroll.

After your Retirement Date

- You can enroll the first of the month following your retirement date, no sooner.
- You must make your retiree medical coverage election within 31 days of the first of the month following your retirement date.

Example: Retiring March 2nd,
First day to enroll: April 1st
Last day to enroll: May 1st

Note: COBRA enrollment will also be available during your enrollment period for continuation of Dental and Vision coverage.

How to Enroll?

You have two ways to make your elections:

- Go online to digital.alight.com/rockwellautomation and go to the Your Benefits™ home page. From there, go to the "Retirement Hub" and click on "Enroll in Your Retiree Benefits"
- Or call the RASC at 877.OUR.RASC (877.687.7272) to speak to a Retirement Specialist.

Note: You will receive new ID Cards in the mail 7-10 business days.

YOUR PRE-65 RETIREE MEDICAL COVERAGE

Enrolling in Pre-Medicare Retiree Medical

Now that you have enrolled in your retiree benefits what happens next.

Paying for Coverage

Once you have completed your retiree elections and/or enrolled in COBRA coverages you will have the opportunity to elect how you choose to pay for your coverage.

You can choose to pay your monthly cost for coverage by:

- Automatic after-tax deduction from your monthly pension check if you elect to begin your benefit right after you retire, and the check amount is sufficient to cover the cost of your coverage. This option is not available if you choose to have your pension benefit paid to you as a lump sum.
- Automatic funds transfer from a checking or savings account.
- Check or money order that you need to mail to the Rockwell Alight Service Center each month. You will get a bill in the mail if you choose this option.

NOTE: If you have an existing HSA balance, it may be used for eligible health expenses even after you stop contributing. The company pays the cost to maintain the account for the calendar year in which you retire. For the following year(s), you will be billed the account maintenance fee if you continue to have a balance. For example, you may use the money in your HSA to pay your share of the cost for retiree medical coverage and out-of-pocket medical expenses. For a complete list of eligible HSA expenses, request a copy for the IRS Publication 502 by calling 800.829.3676 or by visiting the IRS website at IRS.gov and clicking on "Forms & Pubs".

New ID Cards

- If you enrolled in Retiree Medical, you'll receive a UnitedHealthcare ID card by mail. This card includes both your medical coverage and Optum Rx prescription information.
- Expect new cards in the mail within 7-10 business days from UnitedHealth Care.

What If You Do Not Enroll at Retirement

Other times you can enroll if eligible and did not enroll through Retirement:

- The date you no longer have other group medical coverage, such as through your spouse's employer, provided you had other coverage at the time of your retirement. You must enroll in Rockwell Automation's retiree medical coverage within 31 days of your other coverage ending. However, you will not receive the company subsidy.
- During the Annual Enrollment period, which is typically held in October of each year. Your coverage will start on Jan. 1 of the following year.

Check Out Your Options

When you reach age 65 (or retire at or after age 65), most of your medical care will be provided by Medicare. You may also choose to purchase additional coverage from a private insurer that covers what Medicare doesn't, such as deductibles, dental and vision, and some prescription costs. Additional private insurance comes in two forms: supplemental plans that accompany traditional Medicare; and Medicare Advantage plans, in which a private insurer takes over your Medicare coverage and bundles it with other features. Social Security and Medicare

In addition to the retirement benefits you get from Rockwell Automation; you also will want to consider when you need to apply for Social Security and Medicare—the retirement benefits the government offers. Below is a brief summary of these benefits. You can learn more on the Social Security Administration website (ssa.gov).

Social Security

You and your employers (including Rockwell Automation) have been contributing to your Social Security benefit throughout your working years. The options for Social Security retirement benefits are very complex. Consider consulting with a trusted financial advisor to help you make a decision that best fits your needs. Fidelity and Edelman Financial Engines also have tools and resources to help.

Here are some key facts about Social Security benefits:

- Full benefits are payable at your normal (or full) Social Security retirement age 67 for anyone born in 1960 or later. (Go online to ssa.gov and enter "normal retirement age" in the search box to find a chart showing the normal retirement age for different years of birth.)
- You can request to start your benefit before or after your normal Social Security retirement age.
- The earliest you can start your benefit is age 62. Your benefit amount will be reduced if you start it early.
- Your benefit amount will be higher if you start it at or after your normal Social Security retirement age. So, if you don't need your Social Security benefit right away, you may want to postpone starting it until a later date so that your benefit will be larger.
- You can get an estimate of your Social Security benefit at any time.
- Online: Go to ssa.gov
- Phone: Call the Social Security Administration at 800.772.1213 and request an estimate be sent to you.
- Social Security benefits are not paid automatically. You must apply to receive a benefit, which you can do online, by phone or in person.
- Online: Go to ssa.gov and click on the Apply for benefits.
- Phone: Call the Social Security Administration at 800.772.1213.
- In person: Make an appointment with your local Social Security office.
- The date you start your Social Security benefit doesn't have to coincide with your retirement from Rockwell Automation or when you receive your Pension Plan benefit.

Medicare

Medicare is the federal health insurance program for people aged 65 or older. Some people who are between the ages of 18 and 65 with certain disabilities that prevent them from working can also get Medicare. People who work beyond age 65 and are covered by their employer's medical plan usually hold off on enrolling in Medicare until after their employment ends.

Here are some quick facts about traditional Medicare coverage:

- Medicare Part A covers hospital expenses. This coverage is provided at no cost for most people.
- Medicare Part B covers doctor office visits, outpatient care, and other medical services. You pay a monthly premium to have this coverage.
- Details about coverage for Medicare Parts A and B can be found at the Web site medicare.gov.
- If you retire before or at age 65, it's best to apply for coverage three months before you turn age 65. You also can apply up to three months after the month in which you turn age 65 without paying a late-enrollment penalty.
- If you continue to work after you or your spouse turns age 65, it's best to apply for coverage three months before your retirement month (since the medical coverage you have as an active employee will end at the end of the month in which you retire). You also can apply for Medicare up to eight months after your active employee medical coverage ends without paying a late-enrollment penalty. When you apply, you will need to provide the Social Security Administration with the following forms: CMS 40B (Application for Enrollment in Medicare) and CMS L564 (Request for Employment Information). Contact the Social Security Administration at 800.772.1213 to request copies of these forms be sent to you. Then call the RASC to have the forms completed on behalf of Rockwell Automation.
- With traditional Medicare, you can go to any doctor, hospital or other provider that takes Medicare patients. You usually pay a deductible and part of the cost of the services you receive.
- Medicare decides what amounts doctors and other health care providers can charge for the services Medicare covers
- After you enroll in Medicare, you will have an opportunity each year to make changes to your coverage election.

Know When to Enroll

- Medicare has strict deadlines about when you can enroll. If you miss these deadlines, you could lose coverage for several months and be subject to a lifetime penalty (in the form of higher premiums) when you do enroll.
- If you retire before or at age 65, you can enroll during the "initial enrollment period", which begins 3 months before the month of your 65th birthday and ends 3 months after your birth month.
- If you retire after you or your spouse reach age 65, you can enroll during the "special enrollment period", the 8-month period after your employment ends.
- You or your spouse are no longer eligible for Rockwell Automation retiree medical coverage after you turn age 65.

Keep in mind: To be eligible for an individual policy through Via Benefits, you must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B.
